10X Scale Case Study

The Breakthrough - Kilavipara

Client Overview

Kilavipara is a cultural heritage and artisan marketplace connecting traditional craftspeople with modern consumers. Despite having unique, high-quality products and a compelling mission, they were struggling to achieve meaningful scale and revenue growth.

The Challenge

Kilavipara was facing severe growth bottlenecks:

• Business was completely "stuck" with stagnant revenue for 18 months
• Multiple conversion bottlenecks preventing customer acquisition
• Poor website performance and user experience
• Ineffective marketing campaigns with minimal ROI
• Limited brand visibility in target markets
• Complex product catalog making discovery difficult

Our Multi-Channel Growth Strategy

1. Conversion Bottleneck Identification & Resolution

We conducted comprehensive funnel analysis and identified critical issues:

• Slow website load times causing 45% bounce rate
• Confusing navigation and product categorization
• Weak product descriptions and imagery
• Complicated checkout process with 7 steps
• Lack of trust signals and social proof

2. Website Performance Optimization

Complete technical and UX overhaul:

• Reduced page load time from 8 seconds to 1.5 seconds
• Redesigned product pages with storytelling and artisan profiles
• Simplified checkout to 3 steps with one-click payment options
• Implemented smart product recommendations

• Mobile-first responsive design

3. Multi-Channel Growth Engine

Deployed comprehensive marketing strategy across channels:

• SEO optimization targeting cultural and artisan keywords
• Content marketing showcasing artisan stories and heritage
• Social media campaigns on Instagram and Pinterest
• Influencer partnerships with culture and lifestyle creators
• Google Ads and Facebook Ads for targeted acquisition
• Email marketing and retention campaigns

4. Brand Positioning & Storytelling

Repositioned the brand to resonate with conscious consumers:

• Emphasized cultural preservation and artisan empowerment
• Created video content featuring artisans and their craft
• Built community through user-generated content
• Developed gift and occasions-based marketing
